

Community Engagement: Innovative Stories & Case Studies

Lisa Attygalle
Consulting Director,
Community Engagement

David Hanna
Inspiring Communities

IDEAS FOR INNOVATION

Be Courageous

Be Connected

Be Creative

GUIDING IDEA

Be Courageous

Figure out what's holding you back.
Choose to be vulnerable. Step out. Be humble. Ask questions. Remember that you don't need to have the answers.

Example: Family Camp

Example: Family Camp

GUIDING IDEA

Be Connected

How do you talk to the community? Do you express care and concern? How are you using language to be approachable and inclusive? Think about what kind of relationship you want with the community. What kind of relationship does the community want with you?

Example: Nashville Strategic Plan

Example: Operation Awesome Playground

GUIDING IDEA

Be Creative

How can you use the arts to inspire, to cut through, to challenge, to evoke empathy? Who is the provocateur? What will allow for evolution? Or even revolution?

Case Study: Community Workshop

Example:

Example: Peel in 2035 – Can you imagine?

CLOSING EXERCISE

1. Think about a challenge or opportunity in your work

CLOSING EXERCISE

2. What is the craziest, wildest thing you could do to be courageous, connected, or creative?

Questions?

Get in touch:

Lisa - lisa@tamarackcommunity.ca

David - david.hanna@inspiringcommunities.org.nz